Notes:

1. The Duxford Bolingbroke IVT has recently been doing engine runs and should fly again soon. Photos within the last few days do not show any registration being carried but it is assumed that it wear L6739 in due course.
2. The Brenzett Aeronautical Museum is now known as the Romney Marsh Wartime Collection.

3. In a surprise move, the six TriStars at Bruntingthorpe were all registered to CSDS Aircraft Sales & Leasing, Inc, during mid-May so they may yet evade the scrap man. Sister ship ZD949 was not so lucky, being scrapped at Cambridge recently; it is expected that ZE706 will see the same fate within days.
4. The identity of the Lynx lost in Southern Afghanistan last month has become known.
5. ZK552 was noted flying from Odiham during May, although it appeared to be using its civil registration, N703UK.
6. ZZ338 is the latest Voyager to be delivered, arriving at Brize Norton on 29 May 2014.
7. On 1 August some changes will take place with the Naval Lynx and Wildcat force. 815 NAS will become the sole Lynx operator while 700W NAS and 702 NAS will join and in turn become 825 NAS. Additionally 847 NAS, Royal Marines, will begin operations with the Wildcat AH1 shortly.
