Notes:

1. Please note that Dragonfly WG724 appears twice on page 34 in MAM2019. The above is the correct version.
2. A couple of interesting developments with vintage aircraft this month: Swordfish HS504 has appeared at White Waltham recently and is expected to go on the UK register shortly, while the Hawker Typhoon Restoration Group's Typhoon IB was put on the UK civil register on 3 July 2019.
3. It was recently revealed that Hercules C5 ZH885 is the one earmarked for the US Navy's Blue Angels aerobatic team as its support aircraft, while a further five have been acquired for Bangladesh.
4. The next batch of six Lightning IIs, all with 207 Squadron, arrived on delivery at RAF Marham on 16 July 2019. Five of these carried their 'last three' on the nose and wore 'Lightning Force' markings on the tail in the form of a grey lightning flash. The latter is expected to appear on the whole fleet in due course.
5. The first Poseidon MRA1 for the RAF, ZP801, had its maiden flight (as N456DS) on 12 July 2019.
